

National Standard

Country	Detention Issues	Key provision	Legal Instrument	NPM Recommendation	NPM Recommendation year	NPM report URL
France	Juvenile prisoners	Juvenile detainees are separated from adults. With regard to pre-trial detention, the minor is detained in a special section of the detention facility or in a specialised detention centre for juveniles. The same applies for carrying out of the sentence.	Order n°45-174 relating to juvenile crime (Ordonnance n°45-174 relative à l'enfance délinquante)	The NPM recommended that the particular situation of female juveniles must be given specific attention and they should receive equal treatment to that of boys. In this respect, the imprisonment of female juveniles in an area for women is against the law. They must be able to benefit from care within establishments adapted to juveniles. Female juveniles held in detention establishments other than correctional juvenile facilities should be (as far as is possible and according to the institution's organisation) detained in 'juvenile' areas in the same way as male juveniles. Accommodation is subjected to the principle of non-mixing.	2016	http://www.apt.ch/content/files/npm/eca/France_NPM%20annual%20report%202016_FR.pdf
France	Juvenile prisoners	In addition, female juvenile detainees are separated from male juvenile detainees and are housed in a specific unit under the supervision of female wardens, this does not prevent the possible organization of joint activities involving juveniles of both sexes.	Standard rules of procedure for detention establishments (Code de procédure pénale)	The NPM recommended that the particular situation of female juveniles must be given specific attention and they should receive equal treatment to that of boys.
