² Personal data is any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person, i.e. someone who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier or to one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural or social identity. This information may, for example, be the name, date of birth, a telephone number, biometric data, medical data, a picture, professional details, etc.

Processing means any operation or set of operations which is performed on personal data, whether or not by automatic means, such as collection, recording, organisation, structuring, storage, adaptation or alteration, retrieval, consultation, use, disclosure by transmission, dissemination or otherwise making available, alignment or combination, restriction, erasure or destruction.

³ In case of more than one controller (e.g. joint FRA research), all controllers need to be listed here

⁴ This is the unit that decides that the processing takes place and why.

⁵ Is the FRA itself conducting the processing? Or has a provider been contracted?

3) Purpose of the processing (Article 31.1(b))

Why are the personal data being processed? Please provide a very concise description of what you intend to achieve with the processing operation. Specify the rationale and underlying reason for the processing and describe the individual steps used for the processing. If you do this on a specific legal basis, mention it as well (e.g. staff regulations for selection procedures).

The purpose of the processing of the personal data is the handling of the registration, attendance, and follow-up of the virtual seminar on the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the EU (hereinafter: the event) taking place in October 2021 and organised by FRA in consultation with the European Network of Equality Bodies (Equinet) and the European Network of National Human Rights Institutions (ENNHRI). In particular, the data collection includes the creation of mailing lists for contacting experts/speakers (for invitation, registration management, programme development, feedback collection), facilitators, and participants, statements, photographs/pictures, audio and/or video recordings of the seminar, which may be accessible also for participants after the event and may be published on the FRA website for information about FRA activities purpose. The follow-up actions will include feedback surveys and information updates.

4) Description of the categories of data subjects (Article 31.1(c))

6) Recipient(s) of the data (Article 31.1 (d))

Recipients are all parties who have access to the personal data. Who will have access to the data within FRA? Who will have access to the data outside FRA? No need to mention entities that may have access in the course of a particular investigation (e.g. OLAF, EO, EDPS).

Designated FRA staff members:

The personal data are stored in an electronic database. Access to the database is restricted to authorised staff members in the Institutional Cooperation & Networks Unit and the Technical Assistance & Capacity Building Unit who are dealing with the organisation and content of the seminar and the files concerned are password protected.

Recipients outside FRA:

Selected staff members of MCI Benelux S.A.
Sub-processors: Aventri, Cisco WebEx, Slido, Netigate, Conceptboard
Selected staff of the Equinet and ENNHRI secretariat (only the list of participants)

7) Transfers to third countries or international organisations (Article 31.1 (e))⁶

If the personal data are transferred outside the European Economic Area or to international organisations, this needs to be specifically mentioned, since it increases the risks of the processing operation.

Transfer outside of the EU or EEA

Yes

No

If yes, specify to which country:

Transfer to international organisation(s)

Yes

No

If yes specify to which organisation:

Legal base for the data transfer

Transfer on the basis of the European Commission's adequacy decision (Article 47)

Transfer subject to appropriate safeguards (Article 48.2 and .3), specify:

a) A legally binding and enforceable instrument between public authorities or bodies.

Standard data protection clauses, adopted by

b) the Commission, or

c) the European Data Protection Supervisor and approved by the Commission, pursuant to the examination procedure referred to in Article 96(2) .

d) Binding corporate rules, Codes of conduct, Certification mechanism pursuant to points (b), (e) and (f) of Article 46(2) of Regulation (EU) 2016/679, where the processor is not a Union institution or body.

Subject to the authorisation from the European Data Protection Supervisor:

Contractual clauses between the controller or processor and the controller, processor or the recipient of the personal data in the third country or international organisation.

Administrative arrangements between public authorities or bodies which include enforceable and effective data subject rights.

Transfer based on an international agreement (Article 49), specify:

Derogations for specific situations (Article 50.1 (a) –(g))

N /A

Yes, derogation(s) for specific situations in accordance with article 50.1 (a) –(g) apply

⁶ Processor in a third country using standard contractual clauses, a third-country public authority you cooperate with based on a treaty. If needed, consult your DPO for more information on how to ensure safeguards.

In the absence of an adequacy decision, or of appropriate safeguards, transfer of personal data to a third country or an international organisation is based on the following condition(s):

- (a) The data subject has explicitly consented to the proposed transfer, after having been informed of the possible risks of such transfers for the data subject due to the absence of an adequacy decision and appropriate safeguards
- (b) The transfer is necessary for the performance of a contract between the data subject and the controller or the implementation of pre-contractual measures taken at the data subject's request
- (c) The transfer is necessary for the conclusion or performance of a contract concluded in the interest of the data subject between the controller and another natural or legal person
- (d) The transfer is necessary for important reasons of public interest
- (e) The transfer is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims
- (f) The transfer is necessary in order to protect the vital interests of the data subject or of other persons, where the data subject is physically or legally incapable of giving consent
- (g) The transfer is made from a register which, according to Union law, is intended to provide information to the public and which is open to consultation either by the public in general or by any person who can demonstrate a legitimate interest, but only to the extent that the conditions laid down in Union law for consultation are fulfilled in the particular case

8) Retention time (Article 4(e))

How long will the data be retained and what is the justification for the retention period? Please indicate the starting point and differentiate between categories of persons or data where needed (e.g. in selection procedures candidates who made it onto the reserve list vs. those who didn't). Are the data limited according to the adage "as long as necessary, as short as possible"?

The Agency will keep the personal data as of September 2021 for the period of one year, which will ensure sufficient time for any follow-up activities.

9) Technical and organisational security measures (Article 31.1(g))

Please specify where/how the data are stored during and after the processing; please describe the security measures taken by FRA or by the contractor

How is the data stored?

|----------------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| Document Management System (DMS) | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |
| FRA network shared drive | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |
| Outlook Folder(s) | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |
| CRM | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| Hardcopy file | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |
| Cloud used by FRA | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |
| Servers of external provider | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |

The data is stored in the EU and no transferred outside EU.

10) Exercising the rights of the data subject (Article 14 (2))

How can people contact you if they want to know what you have about them, want to correct or delete the data, have it blocked or oppose to the processing? How will you react?

See further details in the Data Protection notice: e-mail to Charter@fra.europa.eu

Data subject rights

- Right of access
- Right to rectification
- Right to erasure (right to be forgotten)
- Right to restriction of processing
- Right to data portability
- Right to object
- Notification obligation regarding rectification or erasure of personal data or restriction of processing
- Right to have recourse
- Right to withdraw consent at any time

Part 2 – Compliance check and risk screening (internal)

11) Lawfulness of the processing (Article 5(a)–(e))⁷: Processing necessary for:

Mention the legal basis which justifies the processing and assess that the purposes specified are purposes specified, explicit, legitimate.

⁷ Tick (at least) one and explain why the processing is necessary for it. Examples:

(a) a task attributed to your EUI by legislation, e.g. procedures under the staff regulations or tasks assigned by an Agency's founding regulation. Please mention the specific legal basis (e.g. "Staff Regulations Article X, as implemented by EUI IR Article Y", instead of just "Staff Regulations")

(a2) not all processing operations required for the functioning of the EUIs are explicitly mandated by legislation; recital 17 explains that they are nonetheless covered here, e.g. internal staff directory, access control.

(b) a specific legal obligation to process personal data, e.g. obligation to publish declarations of interest in an EU agency's founding regulation.

(c) this is rarely used by the EUIs.

(d) if persons have given free and informed consent, e.g. a photo booth on EU open day, optional publication of photos in internal directory;

(e) e.g. processing of health information by first responders after an accident when the person cannot consent.
