

Invitation

Challenges facing civil society organisations in the EU: Presentation of a report by the EU Agency for Fundamental Rights

The European Union Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA) and the Representation of the European Commission in Romania invite you to the presentation of FRA's report on 'Challenges facing civil society organisations working on human rights in the EU', which was published in January 2018.

Tuesday, 19 June 2018, 10.00 – 12.30

European Commission Representation in Romania
Street Vasile Lascăr 31, 020492 Bucarest
Room Nicolae Titulescu, 1st floor

Programme:

10h00 Coffee

10h30 Welcome and opening by:

Ms Angela Cristea, Head of the Representation of the European Commission in Romania

10h40 Presentation of report findings by:

- Ms Waltraud Heller, FRA Programme Manager Civil Society Cooperation and author of the report

11h15 Comments by:

- Mr Csaba Asztalos, President of the National Council for Combating Discrimination

11h40 Discussion

12h20 Concluding remarks

12h30 Networking lunch

For more information about FRA's work with civil society, see here.
For more information about the European Commission's activities in the field of Justice and Fundamental rights, see here

The event will be held both in Romanian and English
Simultaneous interpretation will be provided