14. How do we update our privacy notice?
1. Why do we collect personal data?
We collect the personal data in order to organise a survey on access to legal aid in pre-removal centres during the COVID-19 pandemic. The survey will be then done completely anonymously.

2. What kind of personal data does the Agency collect?
We will collect only the following personal data necessary for the processing operation described above.

(a) General personal data: (keep only what is relevant)
   ➢ Personal details (e.g. name, surname)
   ➢ Contact details (email address, phone number)

3. How do we collect your personal data?
For the first contact with the organization we collect public email addresses and phone numbers from public websites. For the second contact we collect email addresses or phone numbers provided by the respondent organizations.

4. Who is responsible for processing your personal data?
The Agency is the legal entity responsible for the processing of your personal data and determines the objective of this processing activity. The Head of Technical Assistance and Capacity Building Unit is responsible for this processing operation. You can contact us at migration@fra.europa.eu

5. Which is the legal basis for this processing operation?
The processing operation is necessary to achieve the Agency’s goal, as stated in Article 2 of its founding Regulation (EC) No 168/2007 to provide its stakeholders, including Union institutions and EU Member States, with assistance and expertise relating to fundamental rights, including its tasks described in Article 4 (1) and is therefore lawful under Article 5(a) of the Regulation (EU) No 2018/1725. In addition, since the participation in the interviews is not mandatory, the processing of the personal data is also in accordance with Article 5(d) of Regulation (EU) No 2018/1725.

6. Who can see your data?
Selected members of the technical assistance and capacity building unit of the FRA, in particular in the Migration and Asylum Programme.

7. Do we share your data with other organisations?
No. Personal data is processed by the Agency only.
8. Do we intend to transfer your personal data to Third Countries/International Organizations

No

9. When will we start the processing operation?
We will start the processing operation in February 2021.

10. How long do we keep your data?
The mailing list created for contacting legal aid providers to fill the survey will be kept for 24 months after the completion of the survey. If the data subjects do not consent to take part to the survey, their contacts will be deleted immediately. All physical and electronic copies held by FRA will then be deleted.

Anonymised survey results will be kept indefinitely.

11. How can you control your data?
Under Regulation 2018/1725, you have rights we need to make you aware of. The rights available to you depend on our reason for processing your information. You are not required to pay any charges for exercising your rights except in cases were the requests are manifestly unfounded or excessive, in particular because of their repetitive character.

We will reply to your request without undue delay and in any event within one month of receipt of the request. That period may be extended by two further months where necessary, taking into account the complexity and number of the requests.

You can exercise your rights described below by sending an email request to migration@fra.europa.eu 11.1. How valuable is your consent for us?

As participation in the survey is voluntary, it will not be possible for the Agency to collect data about you without your consent. You can withdraw your consent at any time by sending a request to migration@fra.europa.eu. More details are provided below.

Your data protection rights

a. Can you access your data?
You have the right to receive information on whether we process your personal data or not, the purposes of the processing, the categories of personal data concerned, any recipients to whom the personal data have been disclosed and their storage period. Furthermore, you can have access to such data, as well as obtain copies of your data undergoing processing.

b. Can you modify your data?
You have the right to ask us to rectify your data you think is inaccurate or incomplete at any time.
c. Can you restrict us from processing your data?
You have the right to block the processing of your personal data when you contest the accuracy of your personal data or when the Agency no longer needs the data for completing its tasks. You can also block the processing activity when the operation is unlawful, and you oppose to the erasure of the data.

d. Can you delete your data?
You have the right to ask us to delete your data when the personal data are no longer necessary for the purposes for which they were collected, when you have withdrawn your consent or when the processing activity is unlawful. In certain occasions we will have to erase your data in order to comply with a legal obligation to which we are subject.

We will notify to each recipient to whom your personal data have been disclosed of any rectification or erasure of personal data or restriction of processing carried out in accordance with the above rights unless this proves impossible or involves disproportionate effort from our side.

e. Can you request the transfer of your data to a third party?
This only applies to information you have given us. You have the right to ask that we transfer the information you gave us from one organisation to another, or give it to you. The right only applies if we are processing information based on your consent or for the performance of a contract or for entering into a contract and the processing is automated.

f. Do you have the right to object?
Yes, you have the right to object when you have legitimate reasons relating to your particular situation. Moreover, you will be informed before your information is disclosed for the first time to third parties, or before it is used on their behalf, for direct marketing purposes.

g. Do we do automated decision making, including profiling?
No.

12. What security measures are taken to safeguard your personal data?

The Agency has several security controls in place to protect your personal data from unauthorised access, use or disclosure. We keep your data stored on our internal servers with limited access to a specified audience only.

The security measures embrace organisational and technical measures. Organisational measures include:
• ICT and Data Management Policy
• Internal rules on the use of the internet
• Internal rules on data retention
• Staff training on data protection
• Risk assessment of the processing operations

Technical measures include
• Cybersecurity
PRIVACY NOTICE

- Physical security
- Report mechanism for security issues
- Control of access to electronically held information
- Password policy
- Encryption or pseudonymisation

13. What can you do in the event of a problem?

a) The first step is to notify the Agency by sending an email to migration@fra.europa.eu and ask us to take action.

b) The second step, if you obtain no reply from us or if you are not satisfied with it, contact our Data Protection Officer (DPO) at dpo@fra.europa.eu.

c) At any time you can lodge a complaint with the EDPS at http://www.edps.europa.eu, who will examine your request and adopt the necessary measures.

14. How do we update our privacy notice?

We keep our privacy notice under regular review to make sure it is up to date and accurate.
