

European Union Agency for Fundamental Rights

Personal information

Surname(s)

Starski-Lutoborski

First name(s)

Paulina Joanna

Country

Germany

Current professional position

Professor for German and Comparative Public Law, European and International Law at the Albert-Ludwigs-University Freiburg.

Position on the MB

Alternate Member

Term of office on MB

September 2022-September 2027

Additional Information

Before her appointment as director of the department for European and International Law at the Albert-Ludwigs-University Freiburg Paulina Starski served as a professor for Public Law and Global Governance at the University of Graz, Austria. Previously she was inter alia a visiting professor at the Humboldt University Berlin and at the University of Cologne. Paulina Starski was a Hauser Global Fellow at the New York University in the winter term of 2017 and a Kathleen Fitzpatrick Postdoctoral Visiting Fellow at the University of Melbourne Law School in 2018.

She is a Senior Research Affiliate of the Max-Planck-Institute for Comparative Public Law and International Law in Heidelberg and a member of the Managing Board of the 'Junge Akademie Leopoldina'.

Her main fields of research include European and International Human Rights Law as well as Comparative Constitutional Law. Paulina Starski has authored various publications on European and international law and in particular issues of fundamental and human rights.

