

European Union Agency for Fundamental Rights

Personal information

Surname(s)

Mousnier

First name(s)

Julien

Country

European Commission

Current professional position

Director - Rule of Law, Fundamental Rights and Democracy - Directorate-General for Justice & Consumers

Position on the MB

Full Member

Term of office on MB

Additional Information

Julien Mousnier is Director of the "Rule of Law, Fundamental Rights and Democracy" Directorate of the Commission's Directorate General for Justice. He was previously Head of Unit of the "Citizens, Equality, Democracy and Rule of Law" unit of the Secretariat General of the European Commission. Over the past thirteen years, Julien has held various positions in the areas of justice, rule of law, democracy, fundamental rights, equality, home affairs, security, migration, as well as health and consumer protection, working in close link with the other competent Directorates-General of the Commission. Previously he also served as a member of cabinet of a European Commissioner in charge of agriculture and worked in the Directorate General for the Environment of the European Commission. Before joining the European Commission in 2000, Julien worked as head of office for a French regional representation and as head of office for an American professional association active in the electronics and digital sector. Julien graduated in law from the University of Paris II Panthéon-Assas, the Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität of Munich and the College of Europe in Bruges.