Examples from the evidence are posted comments "to shoot migrants and gypsies as well" or posted pictures and posts that disrespect Islamic religion. The defendant was also accused of publicly disseminating extremist materials, of sympathizing with extremist groups and of keeping higher quantity of methamphetamine.	The Specialized Criminal Court issued a verdict accepting the agreement between the defendant and the prosecutor of the Special Prosecution Office of the General Prosecutors Office of the Slovak Republic. The judge did not find any major violation of procedural rules and did not find the agreement as obviously inadequate. The court raised unspecified comments to the agreement, which were accepted by the defendant. Based on the verdict, the defendant was sentenced to cumulative 3 years of imprisonment, while applying suspended term of imprisonment and supervision for 5 years period.	The case was not put through a public court trial. The judge of the Specialized Criminal Court issued a verdict accepting the agreement between the prosecutor of the Special Prosecution Office of the General Prosecutors Office of the Slovak Republic and the defendant. By accepting the agreement, the defendant renounced himself from the right to public trial and appeal from verdict. He was convicted of offenses and crimes based on §424 art. 1, art. 3, §422b art.1, art.2 (letter b), §422c, §423 art.1 letter a-b), §171 art.2, of the Criminal Code (Act no. 300/2005 Coll Criminal Code).	The case did not bring new interpretations or concepts. Defendant accepted the agreement proposed by the prosecutor from the Special Prosecution Office of the General Prosecutors Office of the Slovak Republic.	The court did not issue its own reasoning, it just accepted the agreement between the Special Prosecutor Office and the defendant.
