Cyprus	2012	Trimikliniotis N. & Demetriou, C. (2012), The interaction between racist discourse and the rise in racial violence: The far right attack against a multicultural Rainbow Festival in 2010 in Cyprus, 2012/08, European University Institute Robert Schuman Centre for Advanced Studies	http://cadmus.eui.eu/bitstream/handle/1814/24318/ACCEPT_PLURALISM_2012_31_FinalCountryReport_Cyprus.pdf?sequence=1	Racism & xenophobia	European University Institute Robert Schuman Centre for Advanced Studies	The report found that the manner of operation of democratic institutions including public accountability has led to the rise of populist politics and populist politicians, whose power is growing with the deepening of the global economic crisis. At the same time, media depictions of racial crime and the way in	Desktop research, consultation with stakeholders	N/A	Not applicable - national level which it was dealt with by the police and the prosecution authorities, have cumulatively shifted the terms of the debate in the direction of legitimizing ethno-racial intolerance. Thus, through the undervaluing and trivialization of the breadth of the problem the dominant liberal frame has paradoxically moved towards accepting racism and intolerance as a legitimate point of view which is entitled to space in the public domain
