Poland	2013	ECRI ECRI Conclusions on the implementation of the recommendations in respect of POLAND subject to interim follow-up Adopted on 20 March 2013	https://www.coe.int/t/dghl/monitoring/ecri/Country-by-country/Poland/POL-IFU-IV...	Racism & xenophobia, Discrimination, Ethnic profiling	ECRI European Commission against Racism and Intolerance Council of Europe	ECRI notes with regret that the Anti-Discrimination Act does not prohibit discrimination on grounds of language and citizenship. It also notes that in some areas of life the Act prohibits discrimination on four grounds, sex, race, ethnic origin or nationality, while in others it does so on three grounds, race, ethnic origin and nationality - effectively excluding religion. The authorities informed that the Ministry of Sport and Tourism has implemented preventive measures comprising workshops for coaches and trainers, in particular those working with children and youth on counteracting racism in sport. Moreover, the Polish Football Association has adopted a resolution prohibiting the exhibition of totalitarian, fascist, anarchist, racist symbols and any other material content inciting to intolerance or xenophobia. ECRI welcomes the developments but it expresses concern about the ongoing racist incidents at Polish sports events and reminds that the code of conduct has not been developed.	The working methods for the preparation of the reports involve documentary analyses, a visit to the country concerned, and then a confidential dialogue with the national authorities.	ECRI's reports are analyses based on a great deal of information gathered from a wide variety of sources.	Not applicable - national level
