Croatia	2015	ECRI Report. ECRI Conclusions on the implementation of the recommendations in respect of CROATIA subject to interim follow-up. Adopted on 19 March 2015	https://www.coe.int/web/european-commission-against-racism-and-intolerance/croa...	Racism & xenophobia, Discrimination, Ethnic profiling	ECRI | European Commission against Racism and Intolerance | Council of Europe	ECRI welcomes the Croatian Parliament's adoption of a Migration Policy for 2013-2015. It has seven chapters on: visa policy; status issues (permits for entry, stay and employment of foreigners); Croatian citizenship; asylum; integration policy; irregular migration; and Croatian diaspora. An Action Plan for removing obstacles to the integration of foreigners was also adopted, with a focus on refugees and beneficiaries of subsidiary protection. Security issues related to the prevention of irregular migration and asylum regulation are the central focus of the policy. The emphasis on the administrative and legal aspects of migration and the lack of a human rights approach have been criticised. Moreover, a comprehensive analysis of the situation is missing, as are concrete allocations of funding for specific measures and deadlines for implementation.	The working methods for the preparation of the reports involve documentary analyses, a visit to the country concerned, and then a confidential dialogue with the national authorities.	ECRI's reports are analyses based on a great deal of information gathered from a wide variety of sources.	Not applicable - national level
