Portugal	2016	ECRI, ECRI Conclusions on the implementation of the recommendations in respect of PORTUGAL subject to interim follow-up Adopted on 17 March 2016	https://www.coe.int/web/european-commission-against-racism-and-intolerance/pola...	Racism & xenophobia, Discrimination, Ethnic profiling	ECRI European Commission against Racism and Intolerance Council of Europe	ECRI urged the authorities to take steps to put in place a monitoring system to enable the collection of data which may indicate whether particular groups may be disadvantaged or discriminated. ECRI notes one positive development: the new website of the Commission for Equality and Combating Racial Discrimination is more user-friendly and provides information about lodging a complaint as well as advice on filling in the electronic form, indicating how to present a complaint and the necessary evidence. It also mentions that plaintiffs benefit from the rules on sharing the burden of proof.	The working methods for the preparation of the reports involve documentary analyses, a visit to the country concerned, and then a confidential dialogue with the national authorities.	ECRI's reports are analyses based on a great deal of information gathered from a wide variety of sources.	Not applicable - national level
