France	2017	CNCDH, Evaluation du Plan interministériel de lutte contre le racisme (Evaluation of the Inter-ministerial Plan to Combat Racism - PILCRA), 19 December 2017	https://www.cncdh.fr/publications/evaluation-du-plan-interministeriel-de-lutte-contre-le-racisme	Racism & xenophobia	France, Commission nationale consultative des droits de l'homme (National Consultative Commission for Human Rights - CNCDH)	The CNCDH calls in particular for increased exemplariness by the State and the elected representatives of the Republic. It also recommends that the overseas territories be fully included in the preparation of the next anti-racism plan. The Commission proposes several measures to reduce the phenomenon of 'under-reporting' of racist acts (an unknown figure) and to improve the judicial treatment of racist litigation. The CNCDH recalls that racism and related discrimination should not be separated. It also emphasizes that it is important not to establish a hierarchy between types of racism.	Study - qualitative research	The report is based on the existing work of the CNCDH, as well as on the expertise of its members, representatives of civil society and experts recognized for their expertise in the field of human rights.	Not applicable - national level
