DATABASE 2012-2024 ON ANTI-MUSLIM HATRED

Research findings

Country code	Year	Reference details title	Reference details URL	Main thematic focus	Institution	Key findings - Short summary	Methodology (Qualitative/Quantitative and exact type used, questionnaires etc)	Sample details and representativeness	Area/location of interest - NUTS3 level
Germany	2017	Protection of the constitution report 2016, Federal Ministry of the Interior, (Verfassungsschutzbericht 2016, Bundesministerium des Innern).		Hate crime	Germany, Federal Ministry of the Interior | Bundesministerium des Innern	This report recounts the anti-constitutional efforts in the past year. One of the main issues was the so called hate postings on the internet. Especially on subjects of migrants and asylum seekers. This issue has led to a radicalisation and agitation of right-wing extremists against anything related to Islam. Therefore politically motivated crimes (PMK) have increased in 2016. Fear is the main tool of right-wing propaganda to incite hatred and disdain towards all Muslim people in Germany. According to the report radical Islamic terrorism was a prominent threat to national security in Germany. With 5 separate attacks, of which one with 12 casualties, 2016 had the most attacks in recent years.	Qualitative analysis of major anti-constitutional crimes committed in Germany. Categorized in overlying themes such as right- and left-wing extremism, Islamic terrorism, espionage and scientology, this report evaluates the threats and crimes committed in 2016..	This report is representative of the entire German territory.	Not applicable - national level

DISCLAIMER The information presented here is collected under contract by the FRA's research network FRANET. The information and views contained do not necessarily reflect the views or the official position of the FRA.

http://fra.europa.eu/en/databases/anti-muslim-hatred/

Copyright © 2025 European Union Agency for Fundamental Rights