Belgium	2020	ECRI REPORT ON BELGIUM (sixth monitoring cycle) Adopted on 12 December 2019 Published on 18 March 2020	https://rm.coe.int/ecri-sixth-report-on-belgium-/16809ce9f0	Racism & xenophobia	Belgium, European Commission against Racism and Intolerance (ECRI)	The report outlines the following progress since 2014 on a number of matters relating to race, racism and xenophobia, including the development of hate speech counter-narrative and tackling hate motivated violence. Suggested improvements include addressing discrimination on ground of language; diversity management in education e.g. banning of wearing headscarves. Recommendations include human rights and diversity education; development of a common reporting system for collecting data on racists and homophobic/transphobic related crime for reliable data on hate speech and violence motivated by hate.	The working methods for the preparation of the reports involve documentary analyses, a visit to the country concerned, and then a confidential dialogue with the national authorities.	ECRI's reports are analyses based on a great deal of information gathered from a wide variety of sources.	Not applicable - national level
