DATABASE 2012-2024 ON ANTI-MUSLIM HATRED

Research findings

Country code	Year	Reference details title	Reference details URL	Main thematic focus	Institution	Key findings - Short summary	Methodology (Qualitative/Quantitative and exact type used, questionnaires etc)	Sample details and representativeness	Area/location of interest - NUTS3 level
Denmark	2022	The Research Office of the Ministry of Justice (Justitsministeriet), The National Police (Rigspolitiet), University of Copenhagen and the Danish Crime Prevention Council (Det Kriminalpræventive Råd) (2022), Exposure to Violence and Other Forms of Crime.	https://www.justitsministeriet.dk/wp-content/uploads/2022/05/Offerundersoegelse...	Hate crime	Denmark, The Reasearch Office of the Ministry of Justice (Justitsministeriets Forskningskontor), The National Police (Rigspolitiet), University of Copenhagen (Københavns Univsersitet), The Danish Crime Prevention Council (Det Kriminalpræventive Råd)	The annual report concerns the Danish population's exposure to crime, including hate crimes. In 2020-2021, 0,6 % of the partipants reported to have experienced vandalism, violence and/or hate speech on the internet based on their race, sexual orientation or gender identity, an or their religous beliefs. In the period 2008-2021, 8 % of the victims of violence reported that the crimes was definitly rooted in racisme.	Quantitative (questionnaire)	The survey is based on responds from 12.397 participants in the age group 16-74 years (48 % of the total sample of 25.687). Participants were randomly selected from the Civil Registration System (the CPR-register) in a way that constitutes approximately reprenstative.	Not applicable - national level

DISCLAIMER The information presented here is collected under contract by the FRA's research network FRANET. The information and views contained do not necessarily reflect the views or the official position of the FRA.

http://fra.europa.eu/en/databases/anti-muslim-hatred/

Copyright © 2025 European Union Agency for Fundamental Rights