DATABASE 2012-2024 ON ANTI-MUSLIM HATRED

Research findings

Country code	Year	Reference details title	Reference details URL	Main thematic focus	Institution	Key findings - Short summary	Methodology (Qualitative/Quantitative and exact type used, questionnaires etc)	Sample details and representativeness	Area/location of interest - NUTS3 level
Lithuania	2021	Labanauskas, L (2021). 'Policijos pareigūnu(ių) ir prokuroru(ių) apklausos ataskaita' [Report of the survey among police officers and prosecutors]. Vilnius: žurnalistu etikos inspektoriaus tarnyba	https://lygybe.lt/tyrimai/policijos-pareigunu-iu-ir-prokuroru-iu-apklausos-atas...	Hate crime, Hate speech: Public incitement to hatred or violence	The survey was carried in the framework of the project '#NoPlace4Hate: Improving Institutional Response to Hate Speech in Lithuania' (#NoPlace 4Hate: tobulinant institucijų atsaką į neapykantos kalbos reiškinį Lietuvoje) which was implemented in	16.2 % of the research participants indicated that the most vulnerable to hate crime in Lithuania group – Muslims. The hate crimes against people with disabilities, Jews and people who have visible racial or background sights were recognized the best by police officers and prosecutors. The study points out that the research participants are better acquainted how to recognize hate speech and hate crime in comparison with general society, however at the same time 9.6 % of research participants "agree" or "absolutely agree" that negative comments online about some societal groups do not harm anyone.	Quantitative (online survey among prosecutors and police officers)	An online survey among 88 prosecutors and 474 police officers was carried on 12-25 March 2021. The survey investigated the challenges encountered by police officers and prosecutors in addressing hate crime.	Not applicable - national level

DISCLAIMER The information presented here is collected under contract by the FRA's research network FRANET. The information and views contained do not necessarily reflect the views or the official position of the FRA.

http://fra.europa.eu/en/databases/anti-muslim-hatred/

Copyright © 2025 European Union Agency for Fundamental Rights