Cyprus	2023	Council of Europe (2023), ECRI Report on Cyprus (sixth monitoring cycle).	https://www.coe.int/en/web/european-commission-against-racism-and-intolerance/c...	Racism & xenophobia	Cyprus, European Commission against Racism and Intolerance (ECRI), Council of Europe	The report points to a xenophobic public discourse, that accuses newcomers of taking away access to jobs and abusing the asylum and the social welfare system. This anti-migrant sentiment is described as often linked with anti-Turkish and anti-Muslim narratives, blaming Muslim migrants and asylum seekers of changing the Cyprus's demography. In addition, ECRI observes increasingly visible Anti-Black racism, for instance towards migrants of African descent and Black football players.	ECRI, an independent human rights monitoring body of the Council of Europe, monitors racism, discrimination, and intolerance in member states through five-year cycles. Its reports are based on documentary analyses, on-site visits and dialogue with national authorities. The sixth round focuses on effective equality, hate speech and violence, and integration, while addressing country-specific issues. Information is gathered from diverse sources rather than direct inquiries. Authorities can comment on drafts and request their views be appended.
