

National Standard

Country	Detention Issues	Key provision	Legal Instrument	NPM Recommendation	NPM Recommendation year	NPM report URL
France	External contact	The right of detainees to maintain relations with members of their family is exercised in particular through visits by the their family. Such visits may take place at least 3 times a week for an accused person and at least once a week for a convicted person.	French Prison Code	The rules governing access to visiting rooms and the family life units should be made more flexible and, more generally, all measures facilitating access to visiting facilities for persons under assessment should be taken to allow them to maintain their family ties.	2023	https://www.cglpl.fr/wp-content/uploads/2023/05/CGLPL_Rapport-annuel-2022_web.pdf
France	External contact	With regard to telephone correspondence, this is carried out using the telephones provided by the prison. The use or possession of portable phones or any other communicating devices is prohibited.	French Prison Code	The rules governing access to visiting rooms and the family life units should be made more flexible and, more generally, all measures facilitating access to visiting facilities for persons under assessment should be taken to allow them to maintain their family ties.	2023	https://www.cglpl.fr/wp-content/uploads/2023/05/CGLPL_Rapport-annuel-2022_web.pdf
France	External contact	Detainees have the right to maintain family ties, in particular through visits. In addition to visiting rights, detainees may receive visits from their families in family living units or family visiting rooms. Family living units or family visiting rooms set up within prisons can accommodate any detainee. All detainees are entitled to at least one quarterly visit in a family living unit or a family visiting room, at their request.	French Prison Code	The rules governing access to visiting rooms and the family life units should be made more flexible and, more generally, all measures facilitating access to visiting facilities for persons under assessment should be taken to allow them to maintain their family ties.	2023	https://www.cglpl.fr/wp-content/uploads/2023/05/CGLPL_Rapport-annuel-2022_web.pdf

Country	Detention Issues	Key provision	Legal Instrument	NPM Recommendation	NPM Recommendation year	NPM report URL
France	External contact	The right of detainees to maintain relations with members of their family is exercised in particular through visits by the their family. Such visits may take place at least 3 times a week for an accused person and at least once a week for a convicted person.	French Prison Code	Access by detainees to written and telephone correspondence must respect their privacy, whether in terms of the material resources made available to them or the conditions under which they are monitored.	2022	https://www.cglpl.fr/wp-content/uploads/2023/05/CGLPL_Rapport-annuel-2022_web.pdf
France	External contact	With regard to telephone correspondence, this is carried out using the telephones provided by the prison. The use or possession of portable phones or any other communicating devices is prohibited.	French Prison Code	Access by detainees to written and telephone correspondence must respect their privacy, whether in terms of the material resources made available to them or the conditions under which they are monitored.	2022	https://www.cglpl.fr/wp-content/uploads/2023/05/CGLPL_Rapport-annuel-2022_web.pdf
France	External contact	Detainees have the right to maintain family ties, in particular through visits. In addition to visiting rights, detainees may receive visits from their families in family living units or family visiting rooms. Family living units or family visiting rooms set up within prisons can accommodate any detainee. All detainees are entitled to at least one quarterly visit in a family living unit or a family visiting room, at their request.	French Prison Code	Access by detainees to written and telephone correspondence must respect their privacy, whether in terms of the material resources made available to them or the conditions under which they are monitored.	2022	https://www.cglpl.fr/wp-content/uploads/2023/05/CGLPL_Rapport-annuel-2022_web.pdf
France	External contact	The right of detainees to maintain relations with members of their family is exercised in particular through visits by the their family. Such visits may take place at least 3 times a week for an accused person and at least once a week for a convicted person.	French Prison Code	Detainees must be able to receive regular visits from their close relatives, under satisfactory conditions of privacy which must not be compromised by surveillance arrangements. They must be informed of, and be able to participate in, family events that concern them.	2022	https://www.cglpl.fr/wp-content/uploads/2023/05/CGLPL_Rapport-annuel-2022_web.pdf

Country	Detention Issues	Key provision	Legal Instrument	NPM Recommendation	NPM Recommendation year	NPM report URL
France	External contact	With regard to telephone correspondence, this is carried out using the telephones provided by the prison. The use or possession of portable phones or any other communicating devices is prohibited.	French Prison Code	Detainees must be able to receive regular visits from their close relatives, under satisfactory conditions of privacy which must not be compromised by surveillance arrangements. They must be informed of, and be able to participate in, family events that concern them.	2022	https://www.cglpl.fr/wp-content/uploads/2023/05/CGLPL_Rapport-annuel-2022_web.pdf
France	External contact	Detainees have the right to maintain family ties, in particular through visits. In addition to visiting rights, detainees may receive visits from their families in family living units or family visiting rooms. Family living units or family visiting rooms set up within prisons can accommodate any detainee. All detainees are entitled to at least one quarterly visit in a family living unit or a family visiting room, at their request.	French Prison Code	Detainees must be able to receive regular visits from their close relatives, under satisfactory conditions of privacy which must not be compromised by surveillance arrangements. They must be informed of, and be able to participate in, family events that concern them.	2022	https://www.cglpl.fr/wp-content/uploads/2023/05/CGLPL_Rapport-annuel-2022_web.pdf

DISCLAIMER The information presented here is collected under contract by the FRA's research network FRANET. The information and views contained do not necessarily reflect the views or the official position of the FRA.

<http://fra.europa.eu/en/databases/criminal-detention/>

Copyright © 2025 European Union Agency for Fundamental Rights