

European Union Agency for Fundamental Rights

Personal information

Surname(s)

Surname(s) IONIȚĂ

First name(s)

First name(s) CIPRIAN

Country

Country ROMÂNIA

Current professional position

Independent Research in Public International Law – Focus on the Law of the Sea and Human Rights

Position on the MB

Alternate Member

Term of office on MB

April 2025-April 2030

Ciprian Ioniță holds three master's degrees from the University of Bucharest, in International Arbitration, Crisis Management, and Public International Law. He has also undertaken postgraduate studies at the Central European University and the University of Essex. He completed a fellowship at the United Nations Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR), and pursued traineeships and study visits at the European Parliament and the European Union Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA). His research interests lie at the intersection of Public International Law, Human Rights Law, and the Law of the Sea, with a particular engagement in the philosophical foundations of law, notably Natural Law. His broader intellectual pursuits include cartography and philosophy.

Additional Information