

European Union Agency for Fundamental Rights

Personal information

Surname(s)

Fuxa

First name(s)

Nastasja

Country

European Commission

Current professional position

Legal and Policy Officer, Fundamental Rights Policy and Free Movement, Directorate-General for Justice and Consumers

Position on the MB

Alternate Member

Term of office on MB

Additional Information

Nastasja Fuxa is a legal and policy officer in the Fundamental Rights and Free Movement Unit in the European Commission's Directorate-General for Justice and Consumers (DG JUST), where she deals with EU citizenship law as well as residence rights under the EU-UK Withdrawal Agreement and free movement of EU citizens and their family members. She previously held the role of case handler at the European Ombudsman's Office and worked as a lecturer and research and teaching assistant at the EU law department of the University of Vienna. She also gained some experience in the private sector in the area of EU competition law. Nastasja holds a law degree from the University of Innsbruck and a master's degree in EU law from the College of Europe in Bruges.