

CURRICULUM VITAE

European Union Agency for Fundamental Rights

Personal information

Surname(s)	Jägers
First name(s)	Nicola (Maryon, Catherine, Paula)
Country	The Netherlands
Current professional position	Professor of human rights law, Head of Department Public Law & Governance, Tilburg Law School, Tilburg University, The Netherlands
Term of office on SC	2025-2028

Additional Information

Nicola Jägers holds a law degree, a degree in history from the University of Utrecht, and a PHD from the Netherlands Institute for Human Rights (SIM). She is the Chair in International Human Rights Law and Head of the Department of Public Law and Governance at Tilburg Law School in the Netherlands. Her research focuses on the evolving landscape of international (human rights) law in response to shifting relationships between states, markets, and Non-State Actors such as NGOs and transnational corporations. Her 2002 book, Corporate Human Rights Obligations: In Search of Accountability, was among the first to examine corporate responsibility for human rights violations. Since then, she has contributed extensively to the field through research projects and publications exploring the dual forces of globalization: cross-border trade expansion and the universalizing reach of the human rights movement. Nicola has lectured on (international) human rights law across various universities in the Netherlands and abroad. Nicola served two terms (2014–2023) as Commissioner at the Netherlands Institute for Human Rights, the country's official NHRI. She was a member of the Dutch government's Advisory Committee on International Law and the Advisory Committee on International Affairs. Nicola serves on the Executive Board of the Netherlands Quarterly of Human Rights, and is a board member of the Netherlands Network for Human Rights Research (NNHRR).

CURRICULUM VITAE