1 Introduction

The European Union Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA) is a body of the European Union (EU), established through Council Regulation (EC) No 168/2007 of 15 February 2007. It is based in Vienna and is being built on the European Monitoring Centre on Racism and Xenophobia (EUMC). FRA carries out its tasks independently. It cooperates with other national and international bodies and organizations, in particular with the Council of Europe.

The objective of the Agency is to provide the relevant institutions and authorities of the Community and its Member States when implementing the Community law with assistance and expertise relating to fundamental rights in order to support them when they take measures or formulate courses of action within their respective spheres of competence to fully respect fundamental rights (Article 2 of the Regulation).

2 Objectives and context of the technical specifications

The purpose of the present document is to describe the Agency's requirements concerning interim staff services. It gives guidance to tenderers about the nature of the offer they will need to submit and to serve as the contractor's mandate during project implementation.

The Agency may need interim staff, as a complement to its statutory staff, under the following circumstances (indicative but not limited):

- ✓ Replacement of Agency staff member(s) in the event of long-term illness, maternity leave, parental or family leave, other long-term absences;
- ✓ Periods of heavy workload, which require an additional workforce for a fixed period of time;
- ✓ Specific projects and/or tasks, to be performed on a temporary basis, which require specific competences which are not available within the Agency.

The overall objective of the contract is to provide the Agency with the necessary interim staff in a timely fashion and in line with the profiles requested.

The interested parties are requested to review the present specifications with regard to the Agency's needs and to submit their best offer. The contractor should provide interim staff services respecting all contractual and confidentiality aspects.

3 Description of services
