The Contracting Authority shall be notified in writing of the exact date of delivery within the period indicated in Article 1.4. All deliveries shall be made at the agreed place of delivery during the hours indicated in Article 1.4.

The Contractor shall bear all costs and risks involved in delivering the goods to the place of delivery.

Signing of the consignment note by the Contracting Authority, as provided for in subparagraph c) above, is simply an acknowledgment of the fact that the goods have been delivered and in no way implies conformity of the goods with the Order.

Conformity of the goods delivered shall be evidenced by the signing of a certificate to this effect by the Contracting Authority no later than one month after the date of delivery, unless provision is made for a different period in the Special Conditions or in Annex I.

Conformity shall be declared only where the conditions laid down in the Order are satisfied and the goods conform to Annex I.

- a) The Contractor shall be liable to the Contracting Authority for any lack of conformity which exists at the time the goods are verified.

 - either to have the goods brought into conformity, free of charge, by repair or replacement;
 - or to have an appropriate reduction made in the price.

- c) Any repair or replacement shall be completed within a reasonable time and without any significant inconvenience to the Contracting Authority, taking account of the nature of the goods and the purpose for which they are required by the Contracting Authority.
- d) The term 'free of charge' in paragraph b) refers to the costs incurred to bring the goods into conformity, particularly the cost of postage, labour and materials.

Assembly

If required by Article 1.1.2 of the Special Conditions, the Contractor shall assemble the goods delivered within a period of one month unless otherwise specified in the Special Conditions or in Annex I.

Any lack of conformity resulting from incorrect installation of the goods delivered shall be deemed to be equivalent to lack of conformity of the goods if installation forms part of the Contract and the goods were installed by the Contractor or under his responsibility. The Contractor shall replace at his own expense, within a reasonable time limit to be determined by agreement between the parties, any items which become damaged or defective in the course of normal use during the guarantee period.

The Contractor is responsible for any conformity defect which exists at the time of delivery, even if this defect does not appear until a later date.

The Contractor is also responsible for any conformity defect which occurs after delivery and is ascribable to non-compliance with his obligations, including failure to provide a guarantee that, for a certain period, goods used for the purposes for which they are normally used or for a specific purpose will preserve their qualities or characteristics as specified.

If part of an item is replaced, the replacement part shall be guaranteed under the same terms and conditions for a further period of the same duration as that specified above.

If a defect is found to originate in a systematic flaw in design, the Contractor must replace or modify all identical parts incorporated in the other goods that are part of the Order, even though they may not have been the cause of any incident. In this case, the guarantee period shall be extended as stated above.

The report shall include a description of the problem and an indication of the date on which it started and of the remedial action taken by the Contractor to ensure full compliance with his obligations under the Contract. In such event the Contractor shall give priority to solving the problem rather than determining liability.
- f) Should the Contractor fail to perform his obligations under the Contract, the Contracting Authority may - without prejudice to its right to terminate the Contract - reduce or recover payments in proportion to the scale of the failure. In addition, the Contracting Authority may impose liquidated damages, as provided for in Article 2.4.

Any conflict of interests which could arise during performance of the Contract must be notified to the Contracting Authority in writing without delay. In the event of such conflict, the Contractor shall immediately take all necessary steps to resolve it.

The Contracting Authority reserves the right to verify that such measures are adequate and may require that additional measures be taken, if necessary, within a time limit which it shall set. The Contractor shall ensure that his staff, board and directors are not placed in a situation which could give rise to conflict of interest.
