

Negotiated Procedure (low value contracts)

The European Union Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA) intends to launch a negotiated procedure for services in media monitoring.

The FRA is looking to contract a company providing the best solution for a period of maximum one year for the following media monitoring services:

1. Online monitoring across 27 EU Member States (daily alerts of new articles based on fixed keywords)
2. Print monitoring across 27 EU Member States (on a daily basis for a fixed monthly fee)

If you are interested to be invited to join this negotiated procedure please send by email (procurement@fra.europa.eu) your contact details before 15 February 2010
