

The European Union Agency for Fundamental Rights intends to launch in March 2010 a negotiated procedure for a low value contract for the provision of executive coaching consultancy services.

The overall purpose of the executive coaching process is to have a forum where the Director in a confidential dialogue can develop and refine the strategic and management tool box related to the overall direction and management of FRA. Some of the key topics in focus are:

1. To optimize the setting of long term visions and strategic priorities in FRA;
2. To develop and support the approach to a focused and efficient management;
3. To refine and develop the leadership style to work effectively in the unique international culture of FRA.
4. To support in developing tools to address the rapid changing regional and international environment;
5. To consistently match new management tools with new issues developing in the organization.

Economic operators are requested to send their contact details to the following e-mail address:

procurement@fra.europa.eu

The deadline for registration is: 04/03/2010.

Please note that the registration of contact details gives no legitimate expectations to be invited to tender under the above mentioned procedure.
