

FRA publications overview 2024

FRA product	Description	Languages (Total LVs excluding EN)
 Mapping Child Protection Systems in the EU – Update 2023 January 2024	Children’s rights exist to ensure the safety and wellbeing of every child. Improved child protection systems ensure that these rights are met. In recent years, the EU has taken significant steps to improve child protection systems. This mapping of child protection systems gives an overview of the state of such systems at national level and developments since 2015. It promotes the improvement of integrated child protection systems. It is an update of FRA’s mapping of child protection systems in 2015.	en
 Technical and quality report – EU Survey on Immigrants and Descendants of Immigrants February 2024	This technical report provides all the relevant technical information on the design, implementation and finalisation of the survey on immigrants and descendants of immigrants. Details of the data collection process also contribute to the iterative improvement of survey methodologies, especially when it comes to surveying populations and groups that are considered ‘hard-to-reach’ or difficult to survey.	en
 NHRI Accreditation Status and Mandates – Update 2024 February 2024	The 2024 update on NHRIs accreditation status and mandates also covers their engagement in the monitoring of fundamental rights compliance in the use of EU funds at national level. Moreover, the update also shows how NHRIs make use of the EU Charter of Fundamental Rights in their work when advising government or in education, training and awareness raising activities.	en

FRA product	Description	Languages (Total LVs excluding EN)
 ENFORCING CONSUMER RIGHTS TO COMBAT GREENWASHING REPORT	Enforcing consumer rights to combat greenwashing March 2024 Tackling greenwashing is an issue where human rights, consumer rights and climate goals align. Companies use greenwashing to convince people to buy products that are not always as environmentally friendly as they claim to be. They mislead consumers and harm the environment. This report shows how a human rights approach can combat greenwashing. It is based on consultations with experts in 10 Member States.	en
 EUROPEAN ARREST WARRANT PROCEEDINGS ROOM FOR IMPROVEMENT TO GUARANTEE RIGHTS IN PRACTICE REPORT	European Arrest Warrant proceedings - Room for improvement to guarantee rights in practice March 2024 The European Arrest Warrant (EAW) allows Member States to implement judicial decisions issued in another Member State. It applies to decisions such as arrests for the purpose of criminal prosecutions or the execution of custodial sentences. After being in force for over 20 years, FRA's findings provide evidence for an assessment of the legislation in practice. This report looks at the fundamental rights challenges that people face who are requested through an EAW.	en
 ADDRESSING RACISM IN POLICING REPORT	Addressing racism in policing April 2024 Racism in the police can include discriminatory racial profiling practices through to excessive use of force. Incidents like these highlight deeper systemic issues that need addressing. Many in society are affected by racism in policing, not only the individuals or communities targeted. Lack of trust in policing can fuel social exclusion and damages the foundations of a fair and equal society, however promising practices are developing to address these issues.	en

FRA product	Description	Languages (Total LVs excluding EN)
 Practical Tool for guardians – Transnational procedures in the framework of international protection April 2024	This booklet is intended to support guardians assigned to children in the asylum procedure. It covers the technical aspects of the legal procedures related to the cross-border movement of such children. This booklet covers only procedures related to international protection. It is part of a series of four practical tools for guardians of unaccompanied children with international protection needs and has been developed by the European Union Agency for Asylum (EUAA) and FRA.	en
 JHA Agencies' contribution to EU solidarity with Ukraine – Joint paper May 2024	The third version of the JHA Agencies' contribution to EU solidarity with Ukraine covers the period from February 2023 to February 2024.	en
 LGBTIQ equality at a crossroads: Progress and challenges May 2024 Report & Data Explorer	FRA's third LGBTIQ survey shows that people still experience hate-motivated violence and discrimination. Trans and intersex people face even greater victimisation. Yet, signs of progress show that the EU's and Member States' efforts can positively affect people's lives. More LGBTIQ people are open about their sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression and sex characteristics.	en

FRA product	Description	Languages (Total LVs excluding EN)
 Political participation of people with disabilities – New developments May 2024	Ahead of the EU elections, this report explores the political participation of people with disabilities. Although some Member States removed restrictions on the right to vote and to stand for elections, barriers still exist. This report is an update of new developments following FRA’s last report published in 2014. It sets out ways forward to ensure people with disabilities have equal opportunities, in line with the EU Charter of Fundamental Rights and the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities.	en
 Fundamental Rights Report 2024 June 2024	FRA’s Fundamental Rights Report 2024 analyses the year’s developments in fundamental rights. It focuses on the most pressing fundamental rights concerns facing Europe in 2023: the cost-of-living crisis, rights concerns at the EU’s external borders and migration, and threats to democracy. It also presents FRA’s opinions on these developments, including a summary of the evidence supporting these opinions.	en
 Fundamental Rights Report 2024 – FRA opinions June 2024	The year 2023 brought both progress and setbacks in terms of fundamental rights protection. FRA’s Fundamental Rights Report 2023 reviews developments in the field, identifying both achievements and remaining areas of concern. This publication presents FRA’s opinions on the main developments in the thematic areas covered and a synopsis of the evidence supporting these opinions.	en; bg; cs; da; de; el; es; et; fi; fr; ga; hr; hu; it; lt; lv; mk; mt; nl; pl; pt; ro; sr; sk; sl; sq; sv; (26)

FRA product	Description	Languages (Total LVs excluding EN)
 GDPR in practice – Experiences of data protection authorities June 2024	Data protection rules protect privacy and prevent personal information from misuse. When the general data protection regulation (GDPR) came into force in 2018, it strengthened the role of data protection authorities. These supervisory bodies are the key enforcers of the fundamental right of protection of personal data. This report analyses the challenges they face in the GDPR implementation.	en
 European Arrest Warrant and fundamental rights ECtHR and CJEU case-law – Joint factsheet June 2024	This factsheet focuses on the European arrest warrant and EU Member States obligations to respect fundamental rights. EU law and the European Convention on Human Rights sometimes overlap. The publication clarifies where there are similar principles in different legislation and provides examples of case law.	en; fr (1)
 Consolidated Annual Activity Report of the European Union Agency for Fundamental Rights – 2023 June 2024	The Consolidated Annual Activity Report (CAAR) 2023 provides an overview of the activities and achievements of the European Union Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA) in 2023.	en

FRA product	Description	Languages (Total LVs excluding EN)
 SEARCH AND RESCUE (SAR) OPERATIONS AND FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS — JUNE 2024 UPDATE	Search and rescue (SAR) operations and fundamental rights – June 2024 update July 2024 FRA regularly collects data on the operations of NGO vessels involved in search and rescue in the Mediterranean. This includes any legal proceedings against them, as well as any difficulties in disembarking migrants in safe ports. This paper provides an overview of criminal investigations and other legal proceedings initiated by European Union (EU) Member States against civil society organisations deploying search and rescue vessels and aircraft in the Mediterranean and/or against individual crew members.	en
 Communication Strategy 2023 — 2028	Communication Strategy 2023-2028 July 2024 Effectively communicating and promoting human rights is an integral part of fulfilling fundamental rights for all. Raising awareness of the benefits of these rights to people’s lives is essential for diluting the scepticism about the role of the human rights framework in the resolution of today’s social challenges.	en
 JEWISH PEOPLE’S EXPERIENCES AND PERCEPTIONS OF ANTISEMITISM — EU SURVEY OF JEWISH PEOPLE	Jewish people’s experiences and perceptions of antisemitism July 2024 Antisemitism is still a reality for many Jewish people in the EU today. Faced with prejudice and hostility, most feel unable to live openly Jewish lives. This report presents the results of FRA’s third EU survey of Jewish people’s experiences and perceptions of antisemitism. The survey took place before the Hamas attacks in October 2023 and the war in Gaza; however, it includes evidence from a consultation with national and European Jewish umbrella organisations since. It covers 13 EU Member States that together account for around 96 % of the EU’s Jewish population.	en

FRA product	Description	Languages (Total LVs excluding EN)
 Guidance on investigating alleged ill-treatment at borders July 2024	Fundamental rights violations on the EU's land and sea borders often go unreported. Investigations into these violations need to be more effective. This report gathers examples of alleged rights violations of migrants and refugees between 2020 and 2023. It sets out 10 steps to promote prompt and effective national investigations into incidents of ill-treatment at borders.	en
 Six points for workplace inspectors – EU law safeguards for non-EU workers August 2024	Migrant workers are particularly at risk of labour exploitation. Workplace inspectors play a role in protecting non-EU workers' rights. This report guides inspectors to identify abuse and protect migrant workers.	en
 Monitoring fundamental rights during screening and the asylum border procedure – A guide on national independent mechanisms September 2024	This publication guides EU countries on setting up independent monitoring mechanisms to ensure fundamental rights are respected during screening and asylum border procedures. These processes at borders are for people arriving from non-EU countries. Monitoring mechanisms are meant to prevent rights violations, protect victims, and support investigations into any allegations of wrongdoing by public authorities.	en

FRA product	Description	Languages (Total LVs excluding EN)
	Forced return monitoring systems – 2024 update October 2024 FRA publishes annual updates on the forced return monitoring systems that EU Member States have set up under Article 8 (6) of the EU’s Return Directive (2008/115/EC). This latest update covers the period until the end of 2023.	en
	Being Muslim in the EU – Experiences of Muslims October 2024 Racism towards Muslims is increasing in countries across the EU. Muslims face racial discrimination and racist harassment because of their religion, skin colour or ethnic background. This report shows a sharp rise since the last survey in 2016.	en
	How workplace inspectors can protect third-country workers' rights – Training manual November 2024 This manual is designed to be used by workplace inspection staff in the Member States. It is intended to empower them to enforce the protective standards in EU law that safeguard the rights of third-country workers, including seasonal workers, migrant workers with temporary permits and migrants in an irregular situation. Third-country workers are nationals who are not from a Member State or from Iceland, Liechtenstein, Norway or Switzerland.	en

FRA product	Description	Languages (Total LVs excluding EN)
 EU gender-based violence survey – Key results November 2024	This report presents key results of the EU gender-based violence survey based on data from all 27 Member States. The report focuses on the overall prevalence of physical violence or threats and/or sexual violence by any perpetrator, violence perpetrated by women’s intimate partners and by other people (non-partners) and women’s experiences of sexual harassment at work.	en
 Stepping up the response to victims of crime: a summary of FRA’s findings on challenges and solutions November 2024	This paper outlines key challenges and solutions when it comes to promoting and protecting victims’ rights across the EU. It draws on FRA research over the past decade. It focuses on reporting crime, protection from secondary victimisation, victim support services. The paper highlights challenges and solutions in each of these areas, drawing directly from FRA’s published work.	en
 EU IT systems for migration and policing December 2024	This tool raises awareness on the safeguards and potential fundamental rights implications of these systems and to provide advice on how to support concerned individuals to exercise their rights. The system can also support Data Protection Authorities, National Human Rights Institutions and national authorities.	en

Translations published in 2024

	Handbook on European law relating to asylum, borders and immigration - Edition 2020 fi, lt, lv, ro (4)		Charter case studies – Trainer's manual da, et, fi, fr, lt, pt, sv (7)
	Human rights cities in the European Union – Practical guidance bg, da, el, et, fi, hr, lt, lv, mt, nl, pt, ro, sk, sl (14)		Fleeing Ukraine: Displaced people's experiences in the EU bg, cs, de, es, et, hu, it, pl, ro, ru, sk, uk (12)
	Getting the future right – Artificial intelligence and fundamental rights sl (1)		Charter courses bg, da, el, et, fi, hr, lt, lv, nl, pt, sk, sl, sv (13)