

VACANCY NOTICE TO CONSTITUTE A RESERVE LIST

Job title	Editor
Function group/grade	FG IV
Type of contract	Contractual Agent
Reference	FRA-CA-EDITOR-FGIV-2022
Deadline for applications	09/01/2023 13:00
Place of employment	Vienna, AUSTRIA

The European Union Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA) is organising a selection procedure to constitute a reserve list from which to fill the vacant post of Editor (contractual agent function group FG, grade IV) in the Communications and Events unit.

If you are passionate about communications and interested in developing value-driven messages about fundamental rights and organising events, at FRA you will have the opportunity to make the difference in a dynamic professional environment.

1 BACKGROUND

FRA provides independent, evidence-based advice to policymakers, to help ensure full respect for fundamental rights across the EU, for everyone. To this end, the Agency collects and analyses information and data on a range of fundamental rights issues, provides assistance and expertise to EU Institutions and to EU Member States' governments, raises rights awareness, communicates its findings and strengthens cooperation and ties between fundamental rights actors.

The Communications and Events Unit

The Communications and Events unit is responsible for fostering new narratives on fundamental rights. It develops effective communication activities that combine value-driven messages on fundamental rights principles with arguments about their relevance. The unit ensures that FRA activities and outputs are effectively communicated through online and print media, and events to policymakers at the EU and Member State level, other key actors in the human rights field, as well as to the media and the public at large.

2 DUTIES

The Editor will work in the Communications and Events unit under the supervision of the Head of Unit. The role of the Editor requires a high level of collaboration and joint working within the unit and between teams across FRA.

The successful candidate will be expected to carry out the following tasks:

- Editing FRA publications, texts for the FRA website and concept papers and supporting documents for events and conferences;
- Supporting the development of the annual publication programme on the basis of communication priorities and research outputs;

- Coordination and implementation of the publication programme, including writing, commissioning, editing, revising, proofing, translation, typesetting and print;
- Identifying key messages in FRA's work, proposing and preparing relevant communications to highlight these messages (via the website, social media, press releases etc.)
- Tailoring communications to diverse audiences (including policymakers, civil society organisations, international partners, and other relevant stakeholders); working with content owners to improve accessibility and readability of FRA's publications to ensure maximum impact;
- Assisting in the preparation of calls for tender, implementation of contracts for services and processing payments.

Duties applicable to all staff:

- Actively work towards the achievement of FRA's goals in accordance with the Strategic Plan;
- Perform any other work-related duties and responsibilities that may be assigned by the Head of Unit.

3 ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

To be admissible for this selection, candidates must fulfil all the following conditions by the deadline for submission of applications:

General conditions¹

- Be a national of one of the Member States of the European Union;
- Be entitled to his or her full rights as a citizen² ;
- Have fulfilled any obligations imposed by the laws concerning military service;
- Meet the character requirements as to suitability for the performance of the duties involved;
- Be physically fit to perform the duties linked to the post.³

Education

- Have a level of education, which corresponds to completed university studies of at least three years attested by a diploma.⁴

¹ See Article 12 of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union.

² Prior to appointment, applicants will be required to produce an official document showing that they do not have any criminal record.

³ Before being engaged, successful applicants will be required to undergo a medical examination to ensure that they fulfil the requirements of article 12(2)(d) of the Conditions of Employment of other Servants of the European Communities.

⁴ Only diplomas and certificates that have been awarded in EU Member States, or that are the subject of equivalence certificates issued by authorities in the Member States by the deadline for applications, shall be taken into consideration. If your diploma was issued outside the EU, please indicate in your application that you hold an equivalence certificate, otherwise your application will be deemed ineligible.

Professional experience

- A minimum of 2 years full-time professional experience as an editor or in a similar role, after obtaining the relevant degree and before the closing date of the present vacancy notice.⁵

Language skills

- Fluency in English (level C2), as English is the working language of FRA and the language of FRA publications; and
- Have a good knowledge of another language of the EU (minimum level B2).

The levels indicated correspond to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages⁶.

Computer skills

- Candidates should have extensive practical experience with computer applications such as MS Office package or similar (mainly Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Outlook).

4 SELECTION CRITERIA

To select the best-qualified candidates for interview and possible test phase, the Agency will consider the following essential criteria:

- Proven experience editing a variety of texts produced by others, in English, including short social media posts or web texts and lengthy publications.
- Proven experience drafting texts in English for a diverse audience.
- Experience coordinating a publication programme or planning and organising significant publication activities such as flagship reports.

The following criteria will be considered as advantageous:

- Experience working in an EU agency/body or similar international organisation.
- Experience working in the area of human rights or fundamental rights.

In addition to the essential and advantageous criteria, candidates invited to the interview and test phase will also be assessed against the following requirements:

- Communication: communicate clearly and precisely both orally and in writing;
- Analysis and Problem-solving: ability to identify the critical facts in complex issues and develop creative and practical solutions;
- Adaptability: being able to change one's actions, course or approach to doing things to suit a new situation, and proving adaptive behaviour in response to changing circumstances;

⁵ Professional experience is counted from the date of obtaining the diploma. In the case of having a level of completed university studies attested by a diploma of at least three years, the professional experience of 1 year to be eligible for the post cannot be included in the 3 years of full-time professional experience requested for this post. In this case a total of 3 + 1 years of full-time professional experience is required.

⁶ See <https://europass.cedefop.europa.eu/sites/default/files/cefr-en.pdf>

- Working with Others: work cooperatively with others in teams and across organisational boundaries and respect differences between people; create a sense of team spirit by encouraging shared goals and exchange of knowledge and experience;
- Prioritisation and Organisation: ability to prioritise the most important tasks, work flexibly and organise own and others' workload efficiently;
- Quality and Results: take personal responsibility and initiative for delivering work to a high standard quality within set procedures; show clear customer orientation (internal and external);
- Resilience: remain effective under work pressure, be flexible and adapt to a changing work environment; encourage others to do the same and adjust own and team's approach to embrace changing circumstances.

5 SUBMISSION OF APPLICATIONS AND DEADLINE

Candidates are requested to submit their application electronically through the Agency's website: fra.europa.eu. Only online applications submitted in English will be accepted.

An application will be deemed admissible only if it includes:

- a CV in Europass format (Please make sure to use the latest version; other formats will not be considered);
- a motivation letter (preferably no more than one page);
- a complete electronic application.

Information concerning the status of the selection procedure can be found at the following address: <http://fra.europa.eu/en/about-fra/recruitment/vacancies>.

In case you experience technical problems during your application please contact, within the above mentioned deadline, the e-mail address below providing an explanation of the issue.

Applications must be sent no later than 09/01/2023 13:00 (Central European Time (CET)).

Please note that due to the large number of applications we receive, the system may face problems in processing such amounts of data when reaching the deadline for submission of applications. We therefore advise to apply well ahead of the deadline.

6 EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES

FRA urges anyone meeting the eligibility criteria and interested in the position to apply. FRA is an equal opportunities employer and ensures that its recruitment procedures do not discriminate on any ground such as sex, race, colour, ethnic or social origin, genetic features, religion or belief, political or any other opinion, membership of a national minority, property, birth, disability, age, gender identity or sexual orientation.

FRA encourages candidates with disabilities to apply. If you consider yourself to have a physical, mental, intellectual or sensory disability, please tick the appropriate box on the online application form and indicate any adjustments or arrangements, relating to your disability, so FRA can ensure your full and equal participation in the interview.

7 SELECTION PROCEDURE

The Appointing Authority of the Agency shall set up a selection committee, which will assess the eligibility of candidates according to compliance with all formal requirements by the closing date for the submission of applications (see 3. Eligibility criteria). Only eligible candidates will be evaluated in accordance with the selection criteria specified point 4.

Applicants who best match the selection criteria will be invited for a written test and interview, which will be held in English. It will take place in Vienna (Austria), the place of employment where the Agency has its seat. In case the COVID-19 situation does not allow candidates to have their written and/or oral tests at the FRA premises, all short-listed candidates will be invited for online written and/or oral tests.

Candidates invited to an interview will be requested to submit, by the date of the interview, a copy of their diploma(s) and evidence of their professional experience, clearly indicating the length and nature of their experience and whether full time or part time work. Prior to contract signature, the successful candidate/s will be requested to provide FRA with original or certified copies of all relevant documents proving the eligibility requirements.

Successful candidates will be included on a reserve list, which will be valid from the date of its establishment (in year 'N') until 31 December of year 'N+1'. Its validity may be extended.
+ Candidates should note that inclusion on a reserve list does not guarantee recruitment.

The reserve list may be used for future recruitment, subject to availability of posts and budget engagement.

Please note that the Selection Committee's work and deliberations are strictly confidential and that any contact with its members is strictly forbidden.

Due to the large volume of applications, the Agency regrets that only candidates selected for the interviews will be contacted. Applicants are invited to follow the recruitment process on the FRA website.

8 ENGAGEMENT AND CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

A contract of employment will be offered as a member of the contract staff pursuant to Article 3(a) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union for a fixed period of 2 years. The contract may be renewed.

The successful candidate will be recruited in Function Group IV. The grade (13 or 14) will be determined in accordance with the number of years of experience of the successful candidate. The basic salary for grades 13 and 14 are € 3.710,50 and € 4.198,24 respectively. In addition to the basic salary, staff members may be entitled to various allowances, in particular a household allowance, expatriation allowance (16% of basic salary + household allowance), dependent child allowance and education allowance. The salary is subject to a Union tax deducted at source and it is exempt of national taxation.

FRA also offers a comprehensive welfare package including pension scheme, medical, accident and occupational disease insurance coverage, unemployment and invalidity allowance and travel insurance.

Moreover, FRA offers different opportunities of schooling services through service level agreements with international schools and pre-school establishments, and has introduced policies on teleworking and flexitime in its attempt to reconcile work and private life.

Under certain circumstances, in particular where staff members are obliged to change their place of residence in order to take up employment, the Agency may also reimburse various expenses incurred on recruitment, including removal expenses.

Additional information on the type of contracts can be obtained from the web site of the European Commission: http://ec.europa.eu/civil_service/job/contract/index_en.htm.

For any further information on the contractual and working conditions please refer to the Staff Regulations of Officials and the Conditions of Employment of other Servants of the European Union:

EUR-Lex - 01962R0031-20140501 - EN - EUR-Lex \(europa.eu\)

9 DATA PROTECTION

Personal data shall be processed solely for the purpose of the selection procedure.

Please note that FRA will not return applications to candidates. The personal information FRA requests from applicants will be processed in line with Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data. This applies in particular to the confidentiality and security of such data.

Should the candidate have any query concerning the processing of her/his personal data, she/he shall address them to: recruitment@fra.europa.eu.

For further information with regard to the processing of personal data, please see FRA's Privacy Statement.

10 APPEAL PROCEDURES

If a candidate considers that she/he has been adversely affected by a particular decision, she/he can lodge a complaint under Article 90 (2) of the Staff Regulations of Officials and Conditions of employment of other servants of the European Union, at the following address:

The Director
European Union Agency for Fundamental Rights
Schwarzenbergplatz 11
A-1040 Vienna
Austria

The complaint must be lodged within 3 months. The time limit for initiating this type of procedure start to run from the time the completion of the selection procedure is published on the Web-site at the following link: <http://fra.europa.eu/en/about-fra/recruitment/vacancies>.

Should the complaint be rejected, pursuant to Article 270 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union and Article 91 of the Staff Regulations of Officials and the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union, a candidate may request judicial review of the act. The appeal must be lodged within 3 months from the date of notification to the following address:

Court of Justice of the European Union
Rue du Fort Niedergrünwald
L-2925 Luxembourg
Luxembourg

It is also possible to lodge a complaint to the European Ombudsman pursuant to Article 228 (1) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union and in accordance with the statute of the Ombudsman and the implementing provisions adopted by the Ombudsman. Before the Ombudsman can accept a complaint, it is necessary that the complaint is first addressed to the Agency. Any complaint to the Ombudsman (<http://www.ombudsman.europa.eu>) must be made within two years of receiving the Agency's final position on the matter.