

European Union Agency for Fundamental Rights

Personal information

Surname(s)

BADSE

First name(s)

CHRISTOFFER ULRIK

Country

DENMARK

Current professional position

DEPARTMENT DIRECTOR; THE DANISH INSTITUTE FOR HUMAN RIGHTS – National Human Rights Institution of Denmark & Greenland

Position on the MB

Alternate Member

Term of office on MB

November 2020 – November 2025

Additional Information In

Christoffer Badse position with the Danish Institute for Human Rights is at the level of Department Director and senior legal advisor. Mr. Badse graduated law school from the faculty of law, Copenhagen University in 2001 and has been affiliated with the institute since 2003. Mr. Badse has been working primarily in a national and European setting on core national human rights institution issues but has also conducted workshops and presentations in relation to reporting techniques on a wider international level. Mr. Badse is department director for a legal NHRI monitoring department of the institute, where the mandate as the NHRI of Greenland and the cooperation with the Greenlandic Council for Human Rights also is placed.

Main areas of responsibility: management responsibility) & general (legal) monitoring.

8 yrs. of experience with management and involvement with national priorities for the domestic work of the Danish Institute for Human Rights – Denmark's National Human Rights Institution

17 yrs. in total of experience working at the Danish Institute for Human Rights on domestic implementation of human rights obligations in Denmark (& Greenland), Legal Briefs to Parliament on bills and regulation, Advise to Government, Reporting to UN Treaty Body System and Universal Periodic Reporting, Status Reports on national human rights situation and development, Project Manager on FRANET 2010 - 2013 & 2014 - 2017, and on 2018 - 2020 (end November 2020). Responsible for various domestic analyses on human rights issues and international reports.

Special knowledge on follow - up and implementation Procedures, identifying implementation gaps, teaching and presentations domestic and international. Topics of specific interest: extensive general human rights knowledge and specialist in knowledge in freedom of expression, rights of the child, surveillance technology and privacy issues, police use of force and the mandate of National Human Rights Institutions (NHRIs) and national human rights structures.

Selected international publications and networks:

- National Human Rights Institutions in Europe Comparative, European and International Perspectives; The Danish experience: The Danish Institute for Human Rights; Intersentia 2013
- National Expert of the Network of Legal Experts in the Discrimination field (2009 - 2011)